

Run your own business? Get ahead with new ideas.

MicroBiz Week:
31st May – 4th June 2010

The City of Ryde in association with micro business week
Presents a FREE Seminar:

Micro Business Tips and Resources!

This seminar is packed with practical tips for local micro businesses. You will leave inspired and ready to transform the way in which you plan your work.

Come and learn effective tips for your company with fellow solo and micro business operators. The first session explores practical ideas for setting up and maintaining a successful home based or small business. Included is a review planning regulations that foster the development of home based and small businesses in the local area.

During the second session, you'll participate in an interactive workshop and be guided through a one page microbiz success plan followed by a review of local resources and networks available through the Ryde Business Forum.

There will be time before the event closes to mingle with your fellow local micro business and solo operators.

The guest speakers are:
Stefan Sojka - Creative Director, Cyrius Media Group Pty Ltd
Greg Jenkins - TinCAN Learning
Sabrina Ferguson – Executive Consultant, Ryde Business Forum
Vince Galletto – Client Manager, City Of Ryde
